

CPPS Partners in Mission Testimonials

Sandy Hosack

CPPS Partner in Mission

Blessed . . . that's what being a CPPS Partner in Mission has meant in my life for the past 10 years. Blessed to be a part of the Most Precious Blood Community. Blessed to have strengthened my prayer life within my Small Faith Community. Blessed to be stronger in living my faith. All these blessings with the love and support of the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood while having FUN, sharing food and growing deeper in our friendships.

CPPS Partner in Mission

I write this on this Thanksgiving Day, and it strikes me very forcefully what a blessing the CPPS Partners in Mission relationship has been for me. Several years ago, I received a letter in the mail, asking if I wished to explore the relationship and trusting in the Holy Spirit's guidance, said, "Yes." Being exposed to Precious Blood Spirituality and the charism of reconciliation has made such a difference in many facets of my life and could for so many others! I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Sister Louise Wagner, my aunt, friend, and mentor, who referred me to this wonderful relationship. Won't you help spread His word?

Dawn Boschert

CPPS Partner in Mission

For me being a CPPS Partner in Mission means that I am in a relationship with other partners and the sisters who share similar values and beliefs. This relationship both challenges and supports me to act upon those beliefs and values; that was something I felt was lacking in my life before I became a partner. Being a partner has also enriched my life by the sharing that takes place in our Small Faith Community. Being a partner has filled a void in my life.
