

Reading Material on Immigration and Migration

A Better Country, Embracing the Refugees in Our Midst: Cincy M. Wu. Facts, personal experiences, biblical reflection, insightful analysis on refugees and their situations in the United States. It contains workbook material and practical suggestions as well as further references and agencies to explore for information.

Is There Room for Me? A Catholic discussion of Immigration published by Catholic Digest

I Was a Stranger and You Welcomed Me: A Pastoral Letter on the Human Rights of Immigrants with study guide. Bishop Anthony B. Taylor, Diocese of Little Rock

Strangers No Longer Together on the Journey of Hope: A joint pastoral letter concerning migration by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and Conferencia del Episcopado Mexicano.

Welcoming the Stranger Among Us Unity in Diversity: A statement of the U.S. Catholic Bishops

Because there seems to be a particular distrust of refugees and immigrants from Muslim countries we have included some resources to assist us in understanding what the main body of Islam teaches and believes. We are often exposed to the extreme fringe elements of Islam in the terrorists who, according to those who follow the Quran (Islam's holy book), distort the teachings for their own ends.

What is Islam: An easy to read explanation of the beliefs and practices of Islam by Maulana Wahiduddin Khan, a world renowned Islamic spiritual scholar who has adopted the principles of Gandhian non-violence.

A Brief Introduction to Islam: A simple outline and brief explanation of the beliefs and teachings of Islam by Imam A.M. Khattab of the Islamic Center of Greater Toledo, Ohio.

The Way: an article: Divine Call and Human Response: Prayer in the Islamic Tradition John Renard

The Life of The Prophet Muhammed Made Simple Dr. Farida Khanam editor

A Catholic Teaching on the Issue of Immigration Most Rev. Nicholas Canyon